William F. Parker, said to be of Indian descent, and Joseph C. Chilton, 35-year-old, were arrested at the Sixth precinct station, charged with quarrelling in an alleyway near Third Street and Pennsylvania Avenue northwest. The men are detainers, and following a dispute between them a fight seems to have arisen. Policemen Dugan appeared while the trouble was going on, and he arrested both men. Neither prisoner was hurt to any extent.

Friends of a Lunatic Sought.
Sanitary Officer Frank is endeavoring to locate the friends of Albert F. Moore, committed to the Government Hospital for the Insane Wednesday night in a raving condition. His death, the jury held, was not due to negligence on the part of the defendant.

In the case of Ellen C. Lynch against the Metropolitan Railroad Company to recover $5,000 claimed as damages for personal injuries, heard by Justice Glavin in Circuit Court No. 2, the jury yesterday returned a verdict for the defendant. It was alleged that the plaintiff was injured at the corner of Seventh and F Streets on June 25, 1901, while alighting from one of the cars of the defendant.
